Q & A

What is your favorite thing about your community?

The abundance of parks and outdoor activities to enjoy with my kids.

What initially drew you to real estate?

The ability to help people navigate such a big moment in their lives.

Why is relationship building so key to your success?

Without relationships we would all fail. They are what makes this job special.

How does your background bring a unique perspective to your work?

I come from a customer service background, so I know how important it is to treat people with respect and be courteous.

How has your previous experience benefited your practice of real estate?

I also have a lot of experience in real estate photography, so I have been able to see and get inside a lot of homes in my years. That really gives me a lot of information that I can use for my clients.

What's most important to you in your business?

Doing my very best for every single client and hopefully seeing them grow into lifelong relationships
